FOREWORD TO THE SUPPLEMENT.

1255709

This supplement contains additions and corrections to the "Descendants of William Wilson and Elizabeth Blackburn" issued in January, 1943. Since then over eight hundred additional names and many corrections were obtained.

To arrange them in a manner easy to connect with the names already printed was very difficult since it was necessary for reference purposes to retain the numbers already assigned; often new names had to be given a supplementary number as (XIX 884-33). After this was done still more names would come in and additional designations had to be made as (XIX 884-33-1). By using care there will be little difficulty in following a family line forward or backward. Just keep in mind to turn toward the back of the book for the name of a child as a parent and turn toward the front for the name of a parent as a child.

Before each addition or correction is given the page of the main volume where the entry belongs. If an entry is only a correction the new material is underscored. Other data as to the name is not repeated from the first printing; only the corrections are indicated. New material is shown in regular type.

The supplement has two indexes: "In-laws" and Families. In January, 1943, only the names of husbands were printed where no known children were listed. In the "In-law" index of the supplement an attempt was made to include all husbands of families in the supplement and also any omitted from the former index. To get a complete list of "In-laws" and Families it will be necessary to consult both indexes in both volumes.

This supplement is printed and sent at my expense to all already having the first volume.

ABRAHAM CLAYPOOL and wife Elizabeth (Wilson) Claypool are buried in the old family cemetery near Chillicothe, Ohio. To reach this cemetery: Go East from Chillicothe on U.S. Route 50, for seven miles to Jones Cross Roads; turn right on the Lancaster Pike about one and one-fourth miles to the B.& O. R.R.; turn left up Schooley Hill past a cemetery and church, about three-fourths of a mile. This will bring you to the Robert Stone farm on which the Claypool cemetery is located. (Information from Mr. Clifford H. Vanse.)

CORNELIUS RUDDELL was born in Hardy (earlier Augusta and Hampshire) County, (West) Virginia, August 5, 1769. He was the son of Stephen Ruddell and his first wife Mary (Bird?); was a brother of Ann Ruddell, first wife of Benjamin Wilson (XVI 1). Stephen Ruddell, father of Cornelius, was the son of John Ruddell, (born about 1690), and Mary, daughter of Neal and Ann Cook. John Ruddell's will is in Will Book A, page 338, Shenandoah County, Virginia. Stephen's will is recorded in Woodford County, Kentucky.

In 1782, when Cornelius was thirteen, his father, then a widower, married Mrs. Sarah (Barnes) Beggs, widow of Thomas Beggs. Mr. Beggs left a family of five children with whom Cornelius grew up. Stephen Ruddell moved to Woodford County, Kentucky, about 1783, where his will was probated in 1800.

Cornelius was married to Margaret Wilson, (XVI 11), youngest daughter of William Wilson (XV 1), January 22, 1788; each was eighteen at the marriage which was probably celebrated at the parents of the bride in Hardy County. To this marriage, thirteen children were born; the eldest, Mary Ruddell (XVII 94), became the second wife of Charles Beggs, step-brother of her father and later very prominent in early Indiana history. Margaret (Wilson) Ruddell (XVI 11) died September 19, 1826. In 1829 Cornelius married Catherine Bushfield. There was one child by this marriage as indicated on page 17.

Cornelius died in his eightieth year, July 15, 1849, near Utica, Clark County, Indiana.

(This Cornelius must not be confused with his uncle, Cornelius Ruddell, who died in Botetourt County, Virginia in 1798.)
